FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Army Reserve is seeking CID Special Agents

FORT BELVOIR, Va., October 18, 2004 - The U.S. Army Reserve is seeking qualified applicants to become CID Special Agents. While serving on active duty CID Special Agents investigate felony crimes in which the Army has an interest, provide protective service operations and work with other federal and local law enforcement agencies to solve crime and combat terrorism. Agents receive training at the U.S. Army Military Police School and advanced training in specialized investigative disciplines.

To qualify you must be a U.S. citizen, at least 21-years-old, possess at least 60 semester hours of college credit and a general technical score of at least 110. A minimum of six months police experience is also required.

To apply or for more information contact the nearest reserve CID unit:
